1 The most significant takeaway that I have had from what I learned this week was that It is important for us to know what is necessary or important when it comes to working as a team and communicating.

2 I try to practice my communication skills with people around me, both at work and at home, where I am able to increase our efficiency and make our understandings better.

3 This week, we learned about the most important aspects of teamwork, and how we can strengthen our ability of teamwork by simply communicating and having other characteristics that allow us to not come off as rude or uncaring.

4 I learned that I may not have known as much about the subject as I thought, which provoked me to attempt to learn a little more from other sources so that I could explain better.

5 I plan to contribute by communicating and trying to do my best with the assignments within that I am given. I want to help anyone I can to feel like I am a hard worker and a team player.

6 I have had a few experiences where I was in a class where my team had little to no team work skills, so I had to step in and try to pull them together. It was not easy but I was able to finish the project in time.

7 I would relate it to how we need to communicate with our lord and savior so that he can bless us and let us know what we need to do and how we can strengthen ourselves.
