1 This week's topic is important for teamwork because we learned that sometimes, conflict or tension can be good when working together.

2 I taught my wife about what I learned in class. She learned about having the correct amount of conflict in a group and how it can improve the ideas and progress the group can make.

3 I plan on contributing to my team by ensuring that we always double check ourselves when we agree quickly on something, ensuring that we are all on the same page and not misunderstanding.

4 My experience relates because I have had to deal with groups that either fight too much, or who don't care about the decisions that have been made on projects.

5 If this were a religion class, I would reference how we all try to continually do better, and how the lord prompts us to continually strive to be better through questions and prayer.
