1 This week's topic is important for teamwork because we had all of the presentations. Presentations can show how well a team truly works together.

2 I taught my wife about what I learned in class. She learned of all the different perspectives that the class had for the acorn projects and how they all wanted to grow.

3 I plan on contributing to my team by giving the best presentation that I can and by showing my group that I am a hard worker and a good team member.

4 My experience relates because I have been in a few classes where presentations were an expected project multiple times throughout the semester, both group and individual.

5 If this were a religion class, I would relate this to the gospel by saying we need to work with others to be closer to heavenly father. If we do so, we can always become stronger, while helping others to become stronger as well.
