

- 1 What is the most significant take-a-way you have gained from your study this week?
- 2 What do you do, steps, or processes related to this week's topic?
- 3 How would you explain this week's topics to a person not in this class?
- 4 What did you learn by explaining this week's topic to someone not in this class?
- 5 How do plan on contributing to the team, besides completing your tasks?
- 6 How does your experience relate to other experiences you have had?
- 7 If this was a religion class, how would you relate this week's topic to the gospel?

1. One Significant takeaway that I have had from this week's study is how easily we don't realize the importance of using the skills this class emphasizes.
2. I try to always make sure that I have influence and credibility in my workplaces/work groups. If I do this, then I am able to ensure that If I am questioned about something, I have credibility and evidence of my knowledge/work ethic.
3. I would explain this weeks topics as a step toward ensuring that when you work in a group, you are considered a credible and accountable person to work with.
4. I learned that It is important to ensure that You use the correct words when explaining this concept in order to ensure that your point comes across reliably, which will increase your reputation in explaining things well. You then become reliable when needing to explain things.
5. I plan to contribute to my team by showing that I can be reliable in completing my portion of the assignments and submitting my work on time/ early.
6. I think It relates because It shows how well I am able to communicate my point and how reliable I am while working in a group project, that I can submit things on time and that they have good quality.
7. I would relate it to be consistent and unwavering in your faith, so that people know you are aa strong and reliable source of the gospel and the spirit.